

ANTI RAGGING NOTIFICATION

The College Proctorial Board also functions as anti-ragging committee. Anti-ragging measures and the activities that shall be categorized as ragging activities are prominently displayed through banners and boards, for general information and compliance. Fortunately, no major ragging cases have been reported over past several years. At the time of admissions of fresh and senior students, precaution is taken to avert any such incidence, for which proctorial board keeps a strict vigil on the campus. Also, in the College Assembly, senior students are sensitized against ragging and are encouraged to act as senior friends and mentors to the juniors.

The University Grants Commission has made ragging on University and College campuses, a punishable offence and therefore all educational institutions have to ensure that any such activity does not happen on Campus. The link of anti-ragging page available on UGC website is mentioned below. Please click the link for further details.
